

WTK! Guild Meeting
October 14, 2017

The meeting was called to order by Kate Birkbeck at 9:20.

New members and guests were welcomed.

Claire asked for a show of hands of people who used PayPal online.

Jacki asked for a show of hands of those interested in going to lunch after the meeting.

Jacki presented the possibility of having the Christmas Party at Hodel's. Heidi Haarsager offered her house as an alternative. The members present voted to have it at Hodel's; given the busy-ness of the Holiday season, it would be easier. Jacki will pursue it.

Renee reported on the various prizes from the Fair. Cathy Henry won the Excellence in Knitting Award, which included a year's membership, cash, yarn, a book and a knitting bag. Awards were also handed out in the following categories:

- Most ribbons won - Renee Petrowsky
- Most entries - Barbara Norman
- Most Beautiful - Amanda Swanson
- Didn't get an award but should have - Katherine Birkbeck and Mary Jane Dillingham
- The Lone Sock Award -Jacki Rickel
- Most improved - Kathy Stanley
- Best New Knitter - Desiree Crofford-Anderson

Jacqui Engstrand reported on results of the Knitted Knockers Knit-Off:

- Best Theme - Ron Warren, A Gnome and His Home
- Most Crestive - Renee Petrowsky, Enchanted Breast
- People's Choice - Mindy Montague, Boobies Buzzing

The event raised $275 through entries and another $185 in donations. Jacqui reported that 250 knockers have been given out this year already and the. Only will be used to continue to fund the project. She also noted that she is considering having a calendar made from the pictures of the entries.

Show and tell: Volunteers at the tables took pictures of people's work which were sent to Claire to post on the website and Facebook. Members described their works. The pieces entered in the Fair were also on display.

After a break, Amanda and Katherine presented the educational portion of the agenda on making buttonholes.

The meeting was adjourned at 11:45. Ron had samples of his yarn from his recent trunk show on display after the meeting.

Respectfully submitted,
Cathy Henry
