

What The Knit! Meeting

February 10, 2018

The meeting was called to order at 9:16.

One visitor was introduced.

Membership: Claire Christian reported that we have a total of 130 members, with 34 new members for 2018. Cindy McBride is updating the roster.

Retreat: Amanda Swanson reported that reservations are open for the 2018 retreat for previous attendees.

Board elections: Suzanne explained the Board positions and how the election process unfolds. Another member was needed to assist Cindy with nominations.

Claire requested a volunteer to help with audio-visual set-up at each meeting. Ginger volunteered,

Logan Haartsager has volunteered to be the official photographer for meetings and events.

Members were reminded to be thinking about entering items in the Fair in September.

Knitted Knockers update: Jacqui Engstrand reported that 350 knockers have been given out in the past 19 months. Finished knockers can be dropped off at the Twisted Skein. The entries in the Knitted Knockers Knit-Off last October may be auctioned off to raise money for the program. Knockers were given out and donations were taken at the recent Women's March.

WTK! Will be working on a project for Armistice Day (Veteran's Day) to raise community awareness for veterans. There are several good patterns for posies on Ravelry.

Show and Tell included a group picture of finished Heartpiercer projects.

Educational component: Carole Martin showed the specialty art yarns that she spins and explained her process.

The next meeting is March 10, 2018 at 9:00 a.m.
