

What The Knit Guild Meeting - March 10, 2018

The meeting was called to order at 9:15 by President Suzanne Bryan.

A head count was taken for lunch reservations.

WTK Retreat - Amanda Reported that there were 10 spaces available for the retreat in September. Arenda Holladay will be teaching about finishing, and Charles Gandy will teach about embellishing techniques.

Ravellenics awards - Amanda gave out awards for the Ravellenics Games. Beth G. received the Norway award for most completed projects. Annie Berg received the Germany award for second most completed projects. Cathy Henry received an award for creating her own pattern. Kathleen received the curling award for coming from behind and finishing.

Elections - Cindy McBride is taking nominations for the WTK Board. Election will be held June 9 at WWKIP Day.

Social Knitting will be next Saturday at the Southwest Library.

Claire demonstrated her storage solution for the Knit Blockers which are always difficult to get back in the box.

Beautiful Bakersfield nomination - What The Knit has received three nominations for a Beautiful Bakersfield award, one from Jacqui Engstrand, one from her boss, and one from the head of Adventist Health marketing. Suzanne is working on the application. The award dinner is Saturday, June 2.

The next Board meeting is March 17 at 1:00.

Show and tell.

Educational topics: Roundtable demonstrations of Good Reader, Knit Companion, Knitted Knockers, fix-its, and detangling.

The next meeting is April 14, 2018 at 9:00 a.m.

Respectfully submitted,
Cathy Henry
Secretary