

What The Knit Guild Meeting - May 12, 2018

The meeting was officially called to order at 9:25. Suzanne welcomed the group and introduced new members and first-time attendees.

Election- Cindy said she had sent out ballots electronically and explained the options for how to turn in completed ballots. All ballots are due June 9 at World Wide Knit in Public day at the Marketplace. Members were reminded that the Treasurer's position is not necessarily an elected position. Claire will stay on as treasurer but will have no vote on the Board.

Library - Beth reviewed books she had borrowed from our library, including the Elizabeth Zimmerman CD and Harmony Guide to Aran Stitches. Claire shared three books related to measuring.

The scholarship fund needs donations.

If you are having trouble using PayPal on the website, see Claire.

Retreat - Amanda announced that there was one open spot for the retreat. She reminded everyone that Arenda Holladay teaches seaming, picking up stitches, buttonholes. Charles Gandy teaches about embellishment and design.

World-wide Knit In Public Day -June 9. Suzanne reminded everyone to bring a sock you have knitted for the traditional picture.

Members were reminded that the Fair is coming.

Jacqui Engstrand spoke about Knitted Knockers. There was a reminder that the Guild has been nominated for a Beautiful Bakersfield award, due in part to our focus on the Knitted Knockers program.

There is a group planning a trip to Ireland in April /May, 2019. If you are interested, see Deb Newlen.

Show and tell.

The educational portion of the meeting concerned taking accurate measurements.

Respectfully submitted,
Cathy Henry, Secretary
